

Christie Byun's list of local recommendations. This list was compiled over the years of living in Cville and exploring the community with her husband Ethan Hollander of the Political Science Department. This list is by no means exhaustive, but is meant to serve as suggestions for great local businesses and activities to check out in our community. Hope you find it useful!

Food and drink

- Mexican and Peruvian food: El Corcel (downtown, on Pike St near Green St)
- Tacos:
  - El Charro (113 E. Pike St, walking distance from campus)
  - Botania Voluntad De Dios (1400 Ladoga Rd, lunch counter in a Mexican grocery—short drive from campus)
- Japanese food: Yamato Steakhouse of Japan (on US-231 near the Walmart)
- Bar and grill: Creekside Lodge, 613 Lafayette Ave. (some craft beers offered if you ask)
- Cafe: The Joshua Cup on Main Street near Washington
- Amish Bulk Foods store: Peachey's Amish Store (25 minute drive from town) <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Peacheys-Amish-Store/150752011661277>
- Catering: The Juniper Spoon <http://www.thejuniperspoon.com/>
- Local butcher shops:
  - Moody's Meats (various locations, closest is Ladoga) <http://moodymeats.com/locations/the-ladoga-shop/>
  - Scobee's Meats on US-231 at the intersection with US 36 (7 miles north of Greencastle)
- Liquor store: The Malt Shoppe (lots of local and non-local high quality craft beers) 2407 Lafayette Ave, 765-362-6258
- Health foods, vitamins: Sunflower Natural Foods (Ladoga Road at the intersection with South Blvd—across the street from Botania Voluntad)
- Winery—Coal Creek Cellars (red barn with a beautiful deck, free wine tastings, on US 136 about 7 miles outside of town) <http://coalcreekcellarswinery.com/>
- Farmer's Market—Saturday mornings downtown on Pike St. till October
- Sandwich shops:
  - Brown Bag Sandwich Shop (downtown on Washington and Market) <https://www.facebook.com/brownbagsandwich?ref=ts&fref=ts>
  - Brother's College Street Deli (301 E. College Street) <https://www.facebook.com/BrothersCollegeStDeli>

Medical and wellness

- General Practitioner: Mary Glass
- Dentist: Janet Rucker (she might not be in the network for the dental insurance, but for almost all standard procedures dental insurance may cover all the costs—check with your insurance provider)
- Eye Doctors: Michael Scheidler; Greg Pietz; Karen Ledgerwood
- Dermatologist: Linda Spencer or Rebecca Bushong
- Massage therapist: Rebecca Arrick 765-894-3495 <http://www.healingartscville.com/>
- Reflexologist: Katy Conrad 765-617-8654
- Yoga: Quest for Balance (they offer a variety of classes and have a $5 community class on Fridays, 2886 US-231, just south of Crawfordsville) <http://questforbalanceyoga.com>

Fun Activities nearby

- Bowling: Plaza Lanes (behind the Kroger on Washington)
- Rotary Jail Museum and Tanenbaum Cultural Center: (one of the few remaining rotary jails that still rotates!) <http://www.rotaryjailmuseum.org/>. The Tanenbaum Center is a great space for holding catered events if you need a larger space.
- Shades State Park (25 minutes away)
- Turkey Run State Park (30 minutes away)
- Clement's Canoes: rentals for canoeing on Sugar Creek
- Sugar Creek Trail (nice paved walking/biking trail. Best trailhead is at Rock River Landing Trail Head Park: 44 Rock River Ridge Rd.) <http://www.traillink.com/trail/sugar-creek-trail-.aspx>, <http://www.indianatrails.com/content/sugar-creek-trail>

Oil change and basic car maintenance: Neal Tire (you get a Wabash discount)